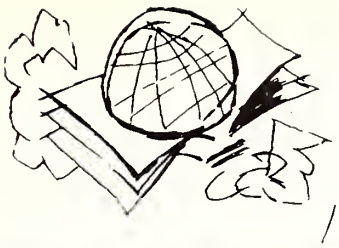
THE NARCISSUS 1963

Our World at PHS in Student Life

Checking his score in discussion at the speech meet held at Peru High School is Frank Anderson, novice speaker. Tammy Groat posts rankings for girls' extemporaneous speaking.

Planning a yearbook is serious business. Carolyn Ebert, pictured here at Indiana University Journalism Institute, ponders over the layout for the 1963 Narcissus.

Summer school students take an informal break to enjoy the warm breezes every hour during the four-hour daily sessions.



Our First Concern Is Education at Our Second Home

"Time for a coffee break," says Mr. Philip Fox to his fellow teachers, Mr. Kenneth Warbritten and Mr. Thomas Feit, as they relax after a hard day in the classroom.

From the first day we enter as sophomores to the day we are graduated, we spend valuable time at our "home away from home"—PHS. These years are filled with unforgettable moments: the carefree time spent during noon dancing, ball games, and club meetings, and the more serious hours devoted to taking scholastic tests, planning research papers, and finally choosing a college.

"Four score and seven . . . " These words echo in the minds of those who notice this bust of Abraham Lincoln, one of the many valuable pieces in the exceptional art collection at PHS.

Our Queens Are Out of This World

The shortest girl, the tallest girl, the brains of the class, the class clown—these are the personalities of our world. Each contributes to the work and fun of school while passing between periods, visiting Ed's candy counter or the nurse's office, attending auditoriums, obtaining a part in the Rodeo, or getting a date for the Prom.

Gerrie-Anne Daly flashes a pert smile for an unexpected camera shot.

Danny Rassner crowns Gerrie-Anne as she gazes radiantly at the Homecoming crowd.

Smiling happily beneath her crown of flowers, Sally Crowden waits impatiently to reign at the 1962-63 Roedo.

A hodgepodge of mirrors, shoes, kleenex, brushes, food, radios, tools, cosmetics, wraps, and last of all, books these are the typical contents of a typical PHS locker

"Looks like a smooth fire drill today," says Mr. Delph to the late Randall Ward, as he happily watches students run through a safety practice.

Running through frequent fire drills, students learn that safety is a must. They enjoy the fresh air as firemen check procedures.

Safety Practices Protect Us at School

Mr. Dale Flora, custodian, waters the plants outside Mr. Delph's office—one of his numerous tasks.

Many things developed us. We learned to work together in classes, music, plays, athletics, clubs. We tried to make good grades, to accept responsibility and to work toward leadership. We practiced democracy through the Student Council and voiced our opinions many times through the year as voting procedures took place. Living in our present world, we strove to improve tomorrow's.

"Here we are at Triangular Town," points out Tom Chapin to Nancy Smith. These two were king and queen of the Thanksgiving Dance, "Heavenly Holiday."

We Experience Tender, Serious, Gay Moments

In all our moments we feel secure, surrounded by familiar faces and activities and moving in familiar scenes. Everything in our world is traditional, ordered, always the same, yet infinitely varied.

"What shall we order?" wonder several junior girls as they meet at the Kar-Hop after school. Cathy Turley, Nyla Ayres, Jayne Evans, Judy Nelp, Bonnie Day, and Beth Holmes relax after a trying day at PHS.

"I hope the dance is a success," says Judy Craft to Joe Beauchamp as they combine skills to complete the art decorations for the Girls' League dance.

Dressed as hoboes, Tigerettes Nancy Reineke and Sandy Eder perform a barefoot dance routine during a half-time show.

The Circus City Band parades down Broadway in one of the city's largest attractions of the year—Circus City Days. Peru, known as the Circus City, hosts a crowd of 100,000 people as it re-lives memories of its historical past during these festive days.

Music, Circus, Shows Provide Entertainment

PHS is a vital part of a larger world—the community. We extend our talents during festive days to be observed by thousands of people. Our band provides music and entertainment for young and old. Students take part in the business world with after-school jobs in downtown Peru. In numerous unseen ways throughout the year, our high school supports civic functions and brings life and activity to our ever-growing city.

The Swing Choir, in holiday mood, sings and performs "Rudolph, the Red-nosed Reindeer" at the Christmas Concert.

"And now I present to you Mr. Bloxom, former physics teacher." Bob Mangene, Student Body President, introduces one of the many auditoriums presented throughout the year.

"I crown you Queen of the Starlight Ball," announces Ronnie Bowland, president of the Miami County Youth Council, to Sandra English, Peru's representative for the county-wide dance.

"Look up, Nellie, the villain has met his end" says Adam Oakhart (Keith Bird) to Nellie Lovelace (Ruth Baber) as Munro Murgatroyd (Jim Cover) lies underfoot.

Displaying their entry in the Homecoming float contest, members of Home Room 214 pose with what they hope will be a winner.

Study, Fun, Competition Fill Days at PHS

Sandra English reigned as queen of the Starlight Ball, which was promoted by the Tri-M Club of Peru High. Four county schools joined in making this dance a success. "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" was presented April 5 by the Senior Class to help raise money for the Prom. Juniors displayed humorous talents in the Broadway comedy, "Harvey," on February 13. Entertaining a full house both nights, the Rodeo, "Hits from Broadway," netted over $1000 from performances November 9 and 10.

With the spotlight focused on her, Ruthie Baber sings a solo atop a piano for the 1962-63 Rodeo.

"That's not my mother!" screams Mrs. Veta Simmons (Liz Rommelfanger) to Dr. Chumley (Alan Denny). The Juniors presented "Harvey" a play written by Mary Chase.

Examining a book which is among the numerous articles from the "lost and found" box, Barbara Aikman searches for a clue to the owner's identity.

A scene of mass confusion occurs on yearbook distribution day. Students eagerly gather in the halls long past school hours to obtain short reminders of life at PHS.

Three girls proudly display the painted skirts which mark their entry into the ranks of the "almighty seniors."

Big, Little Things Make the World at PHS

Sweeping floors during half-time of basketball nes is the job of the P-Men's Club. Ronnie Schut cleans up before the buzzer sounds for the third arter.

In our life at PHS we play many parts. Sometimes we do thankless, dirty jobs behind the scenes; sometimes we dress in our best and spend an evening dancing; occasionally we display our talents before the footlights. Always our world is one of activity, in which we exhibit the boundless energy of the teen-aged.

As chairman of the art committee, Judy Craft admires a part of the decorations, a springtime water fountain which made the 1962 Prom a success. Jerry Bond accompanies her.

Our World at PHS in Academics

Social Studies Brings Wide World

"Do you mean to tell me you have that much of the government project done?" an astonished Patty Ribble asks a proud Mike McLaughlin.

"History repeats itself." That's one reason for the two-year minimum social studies requirement. World history, American history, government, and sociology are the subjects offered at PHS in this field. Of the four, only world history is an elective.

"Let me see now. I just know the United States is on this globe somewhere," muses Evelyn Adams, United States history student.

....into Classroom

Learning the parts of the body, their functions, and how to care for them were the three main objectives of health classes. A required subject, health is allotted one semester to give students this needed information.

Also a one-semester required course, safety teaches the fundamentals of driving. The course includes a training manual on safe driving, the parts and operation of a car, plus actual behind-the-wheel driving experience.

"It's simple to drive," explains Vic Geberin to Cheryl Garrett. "And here in safety class you can t possibly run into anyone."

Joyce Kreutzer and Dixie Black exchange comments as they look over the parts of "Neuter,' the health class dummy.

Math, Science, Essential to Students

"You mean you've never made one of these before?" Terry Marburger asks Barbara Pugh, as Steve Eder shows Sharon Bruck his straw geometric forms.

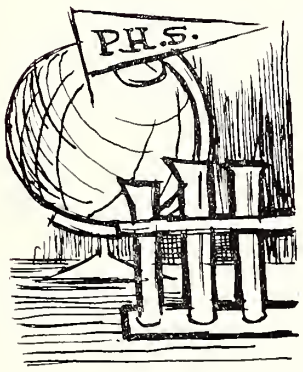
Waiting for a nod of approval. Jeff Henry glances over his shoulder as Mr. Stone checks his advanced algebra graph.

Two of the most widely-chosen fields of interest for PHS students are mathematics and science.

For sophomores who have had algebra as freshmen, plane geometry is offered. The junior year means advanced algebra, while the senior year brings trigonometry. Although only algebra and geometry are required for the college-bound student, anyone may take eight semesters of math.

Even though one year of science, biology, is required, students interested in pursuing a science major may take as many as six semesters. Physics and chemistry are the science classes offered to juniors and seniors.

For Balanced Education



Marty Erlenbaugh watches intently as Karen Johnson skillfully sketches a physics drawing under the keen eyes and guiding hand of Mr. Dice, chemistry instructor.

"Let's see," says Glenn Borden to Sam Goodwin and Diane Gilbert, "after I pour this mixture into the beaker, we either observe the results or call the hospital."

Admiring a new record player for classroom use are Tom Helvie, Opal Brindle, and David Felthoff, members of a sophomore literature class.

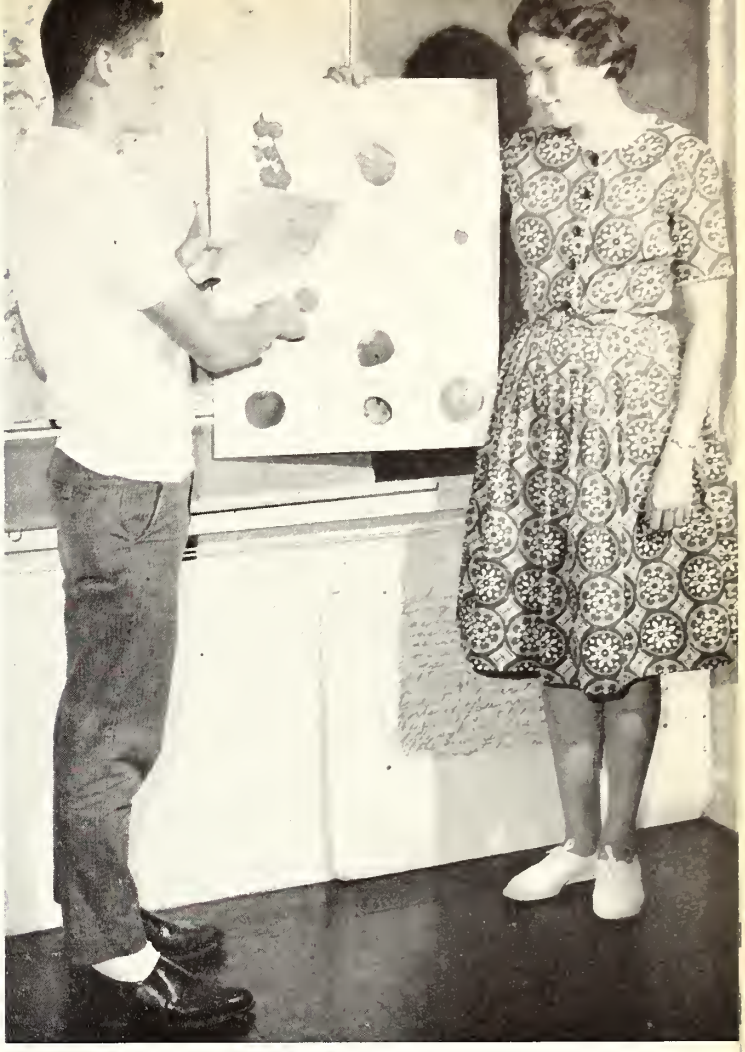
English,

As Carolyn White states her views about the assigned subject, Greg Joseph and Pat Weideman nervously await their turns to participate in a junior English panel discussion.

One of the basic requirements of PHS is six semesters of English. College entrance students must have seven semesters. Students no longer may take journalism as a substitute for one semester of sophomore English as they did in past years. Juniors have a semester each of English grammar and literature. Seniors face a composition class and an elective literature course.

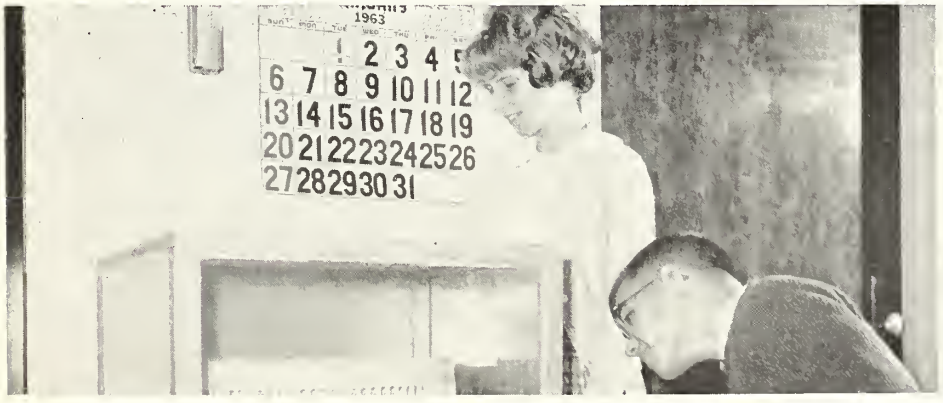
Each year English becomes more difficult and students soon learn the importance of the library and Miss Brundage's assistance.

For students interested in either Spanish or Latin, a two-year course in each is offered.



"Boning up" on Spanish which can be used in everyday life, Bill Buffington and Brenda Johnson review names of common fruits.

Spanish, Latin Offered to PHS Pupil



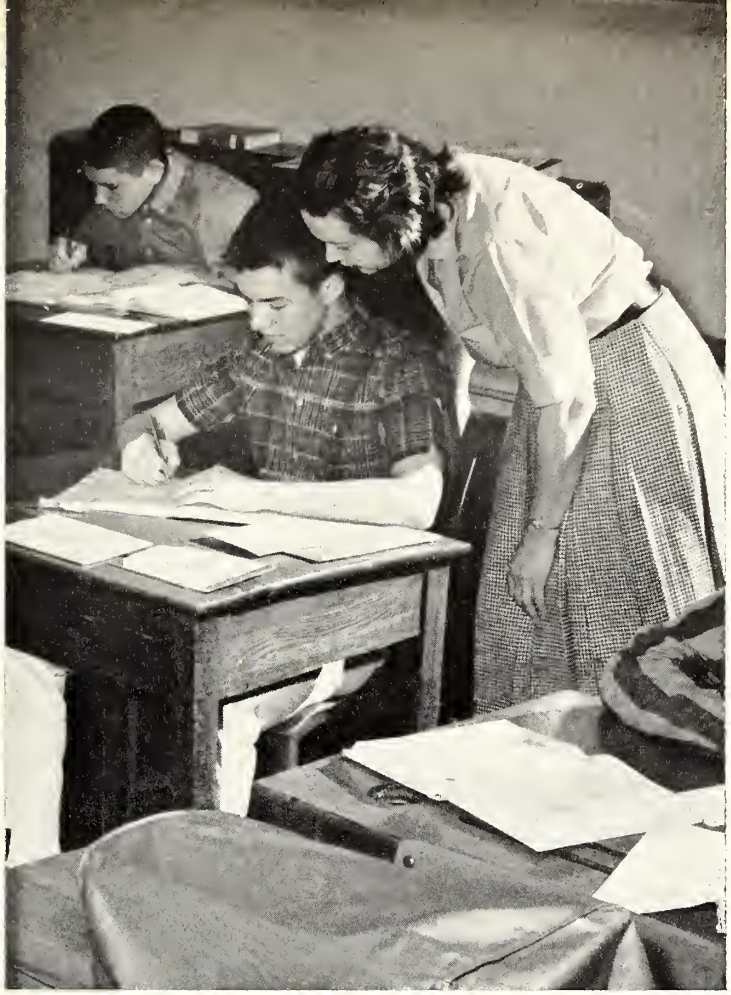
Wray Pohlman and David Reep examine a model of the Roman Coliseum used in Latin classes.

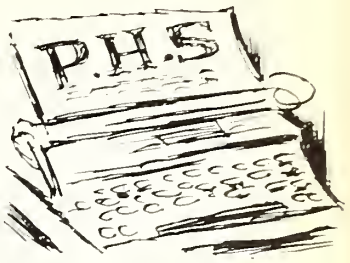
Everyone is hard at work with journals, files, checkbooks, and ledgers in this typical bookkeeping class. Miss Hamilton makes sure that each member of her class understands the new assignment.

Business Courses Give Job Experience

"Now is the time . . . . " and the hands fly over the keys in an attempt to make a perfect line this time. Noon typing was offered again this year for students with full programs.

Checks, numbers, keys, and sales talks are part of the business included in the PHS commercial course. Sophomores usually take bookkeeping, commercial arithmetic, and salesmanship. Two years of shorthand and typing, taken in the junior and senior years, are required for a commercial major. The dictaphone, added equipment for shorthand this year, allows the student to take material from dictation at various speeds for practice only.





Taking dictation from an earphone, Nyla Ayres writes in shorthand what she hears as she listens to the taped voice. Sandra Newby tries to decipher what Nyla is writing.

In Business World

"I wonder if I remember my commercial law assignment for today," thinks Kristi Benner as she quickly reviews before the beginning of class.

Notes, scales, and minor triads must be mastered by Joyce Zerbe, Dick Gerard, Pam Huff, and Cindy Soames in order to pass their course in harmony.

Music and Art Require Skilled Hands,

Margaret Duncan and Darwin Harding listen to sounds of music as they select records to help them identify various composers in music appreciation class.

"Do you think it looks just right?" Louise Kramer, asks Student Teacher Mrs. Letitia Alder, as she touches up her finished still life drawing.

Ears, and Eyes

This is the second year a music major course is being offered at PHS. The program includes two years each of harmony and music literature. To take this course, a student must be in some group of the music department, such as Band, Choir, or Belles. Mr. James Noble heads the music department.

Art students learn the four basic shapes and how to work with them. They develop skill in perspective, painting landscape and still life scenes, freehand drawing, sculpturing, silk screening, ceramics, designing, and advertising. Mr. Wayne Taylor supervises the art department.

Comparing their outdoor drawings and enjoying the autumn air are Gary Fitzgerald, Charlene Baker and Diana Mitchell, art students.

"And here's another mistake," says Ronna Bunnell as she points out an error in a recent Peruvian to Susan Cattin, her classmate in beginning journalism class.

Peruvian associate editors know the labor involved in publishing a paper every week. Working hard to get the next issue out on time are K. Dove, S. Hemrick, P. Shuler, D. Jordan, C. Scames, J. Hopper, E. Cowan, J. Carlin, and S. Swafford.

Speech and Gym Learned by Method:

"Here's some more material for your speech," says Mark Donaldson as he gives the information to Marie Flora, who wonders how her first talk will finally come out. Marsha Childers anxiously awaits her turn to "take the stand."

Leaping high in the air, Mel Gambrell aims the ball and tries to avoid his guard. Basketball is only one of the many sports which the boys in physical education classes learn.

"Keep Trying"

"If at first you don't succeed . . ." So the old saying goes, and so it goes in physical education classes. If at first one cannot shoot a basket or build a perfect pyramid, there are still the laughs and fun, whether the attempts turn out successfully or not. Besides being fun, gym classes teach students team cooperation and physical fitness.

Another subject which requires effort is English. Sophomore students are required to take a semester of speech along with English literature. Another speech course, dramatics, emphasizes the field of acting.

"And the walls come tumbling down," laugh D. Jones, M. Huber, M. Overmyer, B. Murphy, M. Wheeler, and R. Jackson, as Susie Bowman, gym helper, tries to put the girls back in place.

Vocations Teach

"It looks as good as new." says George Mize as he watches Rick Mooney put the last coat of varnish on a chair he has rebuilt in woodworking class.

Away from the quiet of the academic classrooms, students on the Industrial Arts Courses learn practical lessons in their noisy shops. They may choose from woodworking, printing, metal shop, and drafting. For a major, a student must have at least one year in three of the industrial fields and three years in one particular area. A new addition to the print shop this year is a small offset press.

Home economics, one of the vocational courses for girls at PHS, includes training in cooking and sewing. Students also learn about home management, nursing, and child care.

Home Economics and Industrial Arts

Busily working to get the Peruvian out on time, print shop students set headlines for the paper. They are M. LeDoux, L. Miller, B. Morris, G. Hammond, H. Cull, and J. Everett.

"Just how short do you want it?" asks Carol Day of Mildred Packard as the girls pin the hem in a skirt during sewing class.

"Add a pinch of this and a little speck of that," says Marlene Morecraft to Linda Amos as they prepare batter for a cake in home economics class.

Our World at PHS in Person

Principal Delph Heads PHS Activities

Ringing the bell to clear the halls of laggard students is only a minor job for Mr. Earl Delph, now completing his 21st year as principal of PHS.

Heading a high school is a difficult job, but Mr. Earl Delph performs his duties with enthusiasm. Mr. Delph carries out the policies of the school board, supports school projects, and supervises other phases of PHS's curricular and extra-curricular activities. Whether he is giving the morning announcements, encouraging the ball teams at pep sessions, or arranging auditoriums, Mr. Delph is always interested in every student. Because of Mr. Delph's encouragement, many students have been persuaded to remain in school. Teachers and students alike have found in him a genuine friend.

A cheerful Miss Charlotte Baker, secretary to Mr. Delph, beams behind the photographs of her office helpers. Keeping track of attendance and filling out honor roll cards are two of her many duties.

Enlarged Board Sets School Policies

Deciding important administrative issues of the school is the job of the school board members. Seated: Mrs. Mary Robinson, clerk to the school board; Mr. Albert Fishback, second vice-president; Mr. Herschel Wheeler, secretary; Mr. Everett Walpe, first vice-president, and Dr. Raymond Hopper, athletic board representative. Standing: Mr. Robert Haig, attorney; Mr. Richard Scott, treasurer; Mr. Fred Fechtman, superintendent; Mr. Robert Thompson, president; Mr. Lester Stout, assistant secretary.

Scheduling students is just one of the many time-consuming tasks which confront the deans. The dean of boys is Mr. Noel Davis, and the dean of girls is Miss Patricia Brown.

In line with the reorganization of many school systems, the Peru city schools were merged this year with those of Erie and Peru Townships to form the Peru Community schools. This involves the addition of two members to the school board. The board, now including seven members, makes rules concerning all of the Peru public schools. Many problems confronted the board. One of the most important items of discussion was a salary schedule for teachers. The construction of schools was also an important issue during the year.

Columbus is not the only one who discovered a new world. Miss Ina Hornish, Latin and Spanish teacher, has traveled extensively abroad. Here she displays a few of the souvenirs with which she makes her language classes more interesting.

When it comes to figuring angles and proving that one line is parallel to another, Miss Elizabeth Ridenour, geometry teacher, is an expert. Here she discovers that skill and patience is the formula for parallel parking outside PHS.

Blowing not his own, but a borrowed horn, Mr. Thomas Feit, speech teacher, fills in for an absent band member on Senior night. Mr. Feit played this instrument during his high school band days at Columbia City.

In Memoriam

A fine teacher was lost to Peru High School with the death of Mr. Randall Ward on February 23, 1963. Mr. Ward, who taught machine shop and had been a member of the faculty for only a year and a half, had already won himself a place in the hearts of his students and fellow teachers for his professional competency and affable personality. He was the sponsor for the Industrial Club and a member of the Welfare Committee of the Peru Teachers Association.

Boosting the Tigers on to victory by keeping the posters in order are the Senior Class officers. They are Gerrie-Anne Daly, secretary; Jerry Bradley, treasurer; Keith Bird, vice-president, and David Denny, president.

Seniors Bid Adieu to Their World

"It doesn't seem possible that we're graduating already," says Gloria Geberin to John Personett as they look over Commencement invitations.

Beginning the year with much enthusiasm and finishing it with even more, the class of 1963 brought to a close its four memory-filled years at PHS. The seniors not only assumed new responsibilities but also obtained many long-awaited privileges such as wearing senior cords. As the seniors look back on their high school years, they realize how much they will miss the excitement of the Rodeo, ball games, and formal dances. Upon graduation, the 1963 seniors will leave behind four of the best years of their lives.

Adjusting the picture, "Ships That Pass in the Night," by Jan Cox, Dennis Snyder, junior, assists in the re-hanging of the collection donated by G. David Thompson, Pittsburgh industrialist and former student.

This year's Junior class especially enjoyed being upperclassmen at last, since they occupied for two long years the role of youngest class in PHS. To raise money for the traditional Junior-Senior Prom, the class chose the comedy "Harvey," filling the house almost to capacity for a successful evening. As the end of the school year approached, juniors wondered whether they were ready to assume the dignity of seniors.

"How many will our class add?" the officers of the Junior class wonder as they inspect the trophy case in the main hall. They are Ron Williams, vice-president; Jeff Henry, treasurer; Ron Bowland, president, and Kathy Volpert, secretary.

Getting acquainted with a new school and new teachers occupied members of the sophomore class for the first few weeks of their life at PHS. Following class elections, carried out high-school style with a "political" campaign, the sophomores settled down to a routine of school work and extra-curricular activities. The officers and a committee of students met with jewelry company representatives to choose designs for class rings. In April, members of the class made their selection and ordered the coveted symbol of upperclassmanship.

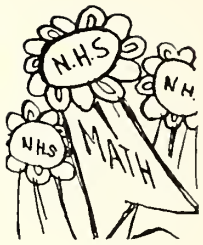
Our World at PHS in Activities



Students with high grade averages are accepted into National Honor Society. Seniors are: Row 1: S. English, J. O'Connell, C. Black, E. Crume, M. Scott, R. Baber, D. Smith, R. Thompson, Miss Ridenour, sponsor. Row 2: A. Kunkle, C. Ebert, J. Sharp, T. Bender, J. Hanks, M. Montgomery, J. Miller, K. Fouts, M. Boone. Row 3: M. Plotner, P. Shannon, D. Randolph, T. Mullett, S. McCarthy, J. Wyneken, B. Potter, S. Crowden, D. Rassner. Row 4: F. Anderson, K. Bird, B. Mowbray, G. Borden, J. Butler, D. Hostetler, M. Houlihan, K. Dove, T. Noble, S. Goodwin.

Scholastic Clubs Complete Their Duties

Qualifications for membership in National Honor Society are scholarship, service, character, and leadership. Juniors must have a 93% average and are inducted in the spring; seniors must have 91% and are inducted in the fall. Student Council sponsored the All-Fund Drive, raising almost $1,000. Being in charge of many functions, the group again carried out turnabout week which was renamed Smock Week, from April 1 to 7. Students with a major in mathematics found an educational interest in the Math or XYZ Club. Mr. Ben Rufe is sponsor.

Junior members of the Honor Society are: Row 1: A. Taylor, L. Hagen, D. Mitchell, S. Eldridge, B. Wernz, J. Elliott, A. Disborough. Row 2: D. Davis, B. Day, S. Adkins, C. White, K. Ulery, B. Pier, M. Eilar, Mr. Rufe, sponsor. Row 3: R. Stitt, D. Jordan, J. Henry, T. Baird, M. Hartz, M. Joseph, L. Pope, D. Ramsey, G. Joseph, D. Wright.

The XYZ Club, one of the newest at PHS, is open to math majors. Row 1: T. Bender, L. Hagen, M. Scott, E. Crume, M. Bullock, J. Hanks, D. Henderson. Row 2: J. Gilkey, A. Kunkle, J. O'Connell, B. Pier, D. Davis, K. Jackson, D. Jordan, R. Stitt. Row 3: C. Bunnell, B. Scott, R. Manifold, R. McLaughlin, T. Jones, M. Plotner, J. Neher, L. Pope, M. Houlihan. Row 4: E. Harvey, R. Stitsworth, D. Ramsey, D. Landis, S. Goodwin, D. Enyart, P. Sagester, M. Giver, M. Erlenbaugh.

Improving PHS through student government is the task of the Student Council. This year's members are: Row 1: C. King, N. Smith, V. Crowden, R. Thompson, J. Zerbe, G. Daly, L. Jackson, B. Black, J. Sharp. Row 2: Mr. Donald Stone, adviser; C. Giver, S. Crowden, S. English, P. Brindle, B. Trexler, D. Rassner, M. Boone, B. Day, D. Mitchell. Row 3: Mr. Albert Spandau, adviser; R. Williams, B. Davidson, T. Rockwell, B. Mangene, D. Denny, J. Bradley, J. Langdon, C. Davidson, R. Bowland, J. Allbritten.

Presenting home and exchange concerts, performing at ball games, and preparing for various functions at PHS occupy members of the band. Row 1: S. Stookey, D. Smith, R. Thompson, S. Bowman, C. Ebert, R. Stitsworth, S. Goodwin, T. Noble, S. Hays, C. Nash, P. Danielsen, M. Giver, T. Geberin, J. Miller, J. Jackley, P. Angle, K. Butt, G. Geberin, J. Baublit, J. Sonafrank. Row 2: S. Malott, T. Bender, B. Newman, R. Collins, E. Sharpf, D. Randolph, M. Scott, P. Arrick, L. Smith, D. Henderson, J. Allbritten, R. Bowland, J. Elliott, J. Norman, L. Pope, R. Mowery, E. Cowan, L. Dunton, O. Goodwin, G. Harris. Row 3: M. Bullock, A. Taylor, D. Davis, C. Soames, D. Mitchell, P. Shuler, K. Hahn, J. Glassburn, T. Hand, D. Ramsey, J. Eisaman, M. Joseph, N. Marburger, E. Boyd, D. Snyder, G. Joseph, D. Clark, P. Horst, C. Davidson, D. Wright. Row 4: T. Jones, P. Manifold, B. Scott, J. Gilkey, J. Brownlee, C. Boyer, R. Gerard, M. Whitney, K. Jackson, M. Overmyer, D. Jones, R. May, C. Garrett, K. Benner, G. Freeman, B. Grant, B. Hoover, S. Blinn, J. Hoover, J. Zerbe. Row 5: R. Moffatt, T. Helvie, M. Craig, R. Scott, D. Harding, M. Cole, D. Thompson, J. Helm, G. Hall, L. Boys, N. Guyer, F. Jones, C. Cole, K. Kreutzer, S. Messersmith, P. Smith, J. Hurt.

Tiger Band Revives Three-Way Festival

The Marching Tiger Band and their shows are one of the thrills at both football and basketball games. The band performed for pre-game and half-time shows, traveling to Hartford City to present a half-time performance there. Some of the shows included "Hits from Broadway," "Dixieland," and "Black Magic," the Senior show. The Concert and Varsity Band presented the Christmas and Spring Concerts and were hosts to Kokomo and Marion at the Three-Way Music Festival, which was revived this year. The groups also exchanged concerts with neighboring cities. The Pep Band backed the team throughout the year by creating enthusiasm and spirit.

The Belles performed at many civic functions. They are: Row 1: L. Skinner, S. Woolley, R. Moss, J. Evans, N. Reineke, J. English, N. Ayres, C. Soames B. Wernz, K. Kunkle, V. Crowden, J. Dobler, V. Siegfred, S. Salmons, S. Burkdoll, C. King, W. Pohlman, N. Beck, N. Fry, P. Ammerman. Row 2: J. Hopper, K. Hahn, J. Elliott, R. Carswell, T. Bender, S. Malott, N. Atkinson, L. Arnold, M. Childers, C. Nash, P. Wilson, M. Richter, M. Montgomery, J. Warder, G. Harris, R. Pugh, D. Mitchell, D. Longenecker B. Day, C. Wise, N. Smith, K. Volpert, B. Black. Row 3: K. Kreutzer, K. Saine, S. Garrison, D. Halley, J. Wyneken M. Garber, D. Davis, E. Adams, T. Mullett, B. Bruff, M. Montgomery, M. King, K. Johnson, P. Weideman, C. Miller, J. Toepfer, B. Moore, J. Smith, J. Kreutzer, S. Richter, D. Randolph, J. Creager, C. Guss, E. Boyd, S. McMinn J. Jackley.

The Belles is an all-girl vocal group composed of 69 persons; Choir is a mixed group of 64 persons. They are both under the direction of Mr. James E. Noble. They perform at various home and exchange concerts and contribute to seasonal events which occur yearly. The groups also participated in the Three-Way Musical Festival, revived this year, took part in the annual Rodeo, and made a combined Christmas album, "Christmas in Song."

Accompanists for the two singing organizations, Choir and Belles, are Cathy Miller Belles accompanist, and Carolyn Ebert, Swing Choir accompanist and Choir assistant accompanist.

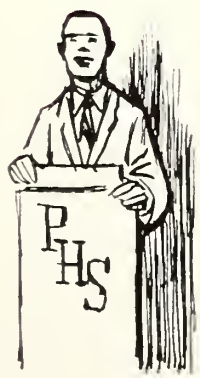
The Choir was one of the singing groups which participated in presenting the "Living Christmas Card" on the Courthouse lawn.

Music Provides Fun and Education

Performing at concerts and various musical events were these choir members. Row 1: R. Baber, K. Butt, J. Craft, C. Turley, S. Siblisk, S. English, S. Craig, N. Doran, K. Morefield, D. Sedam, S. Crowden, R. Thompson, A. Taylor, B. Schlageter, L. Rommelfanger. Row 2: S. Adkins, C. Miller, S. McCarthy, M. Cole, J. Nelp, B. Potter, L. Smith, J. Sonafrank, C. Ebert, M. Duncan, L. Hagen, S. Hays, R. Trexler. Row 3: J. Allbritten, M. McLaughlin, M. King, B. Mowbray, T. Noble, R. Bowland, T. Marburger, P. Duncan, D. Rassner, D. Jordan, P. Horst, T. Geberin, J. Personett, B. McCormick. Row 4: C. Davidson, J. Rook, B. Smalley, G. Washington, R. Stitsworth, J. Butler, P. Arrick, D. Denny, B. Newman, M. Erlenbaugh, P. Danielsen, J. Rhodes, D. Landgrave, K. Dawalt, D. Lawrence, R. Williams.

Members of Choir, Band, and Belles are eligible for Modern Music Masters, or Tri-M. Row 1: S. English, R. Baber, T. Noble, S. Goodwin. C. Ebert. Row 2: R. Carswell, J. Jackley, J. Craft, S. Malott, L. Smith, C. Nash, S. Hays, T. Bender, R. Thompson, M. Scott, K. Butt. Row 3: J. English. C. Turley, C. Soames, J. Elliott, P. Shuler, M. Bullock, D. Mitchell, B. Day, C. Wise, M. Montgomery, D. Smith, S. Payne. Row 4: M. Duncan, K. Hahn, A. Taylor, D. Davis, D. Halley, S. McCarthy, M. Montgomery, C. Miller, B. Potter. S. Crowden, J. Sonafrank, D. Randolph, J. Miller. Row 5: N. Reineke, M. Cole, E. Cowan. J. Allbritten, R. Bowland, R. Stitsworth, P. Arrick, C. Davidson, B. Mowbray, D. Reed, S. Stookey, J. Nelp E. Adams.

Tri-M Promotes High Levels In Music



The purposes of Tri-M, or Modern Music Masters, are to create and maintain high standards of music. Students must pass the Tri-M test by learning the constitution, song, names of local officers, location of the main offices, and chapter number. The club organizes an annual induction ceremony and a spring banquet, and meets on call. Officers this year are Tim Noble, president; Ruth Baber, vice-president; Carolyn Ebert, secretary; Sam Goodwin, treasurer, and Sandra English, historian.

Swing Choir performed at home and exchange concerts and at many other seasonal and social events, the girls in identical dresses and the boys in similar suits. The members create steps and dance routines to accompany their songs.

Tigerettes and Majorettes perform at half-time shows for games. They consist of 14 girls who work industriously sewing outfits and matching steps with themes of their songs. Sally Crowden is head Tigerette and Judy Craft is head Majorette.

Other Tri-M members are: Row 1: J. Evans, N. Beck, M. Whitney, C. Boyer. Row 2: N. Atkinson, J. Smith, J. Zerbe, P. Huff. Row 3: B. Scott, S. Garrison, J. Hurt, P. Smith. Row 4: M. Erlenbaugh, D. Ramsey, D. Thompson, J. Brownlee.

The "paraphernalia" provides half-time entertainment at athletic contests. Kneeling are the Majorettes: B. Holmes, N. Ayres, S. Reed, B. Reed, J. Craft. Standing, the Tigerettes: C. Turley J. English, S. Eder, B. Potter, M. Montgomery, J. Nelp, S. Crowden, N. Reineke, J. Evans, R. Baber.

Swinging and singing, the Swing Choir brought Christmas joy to many audiences. They are: Seated: C. Miller, S. Crowden, L. Smith, B. Potter, S. Hays, S. English, C. Turley, R. Baber. Standing: D. Rassner, T. Noble, R. Bowland, P. Arrick, C. Davidson, J. Allbritten, M. King, B. Mowbray, C. Ebert.

Looking over underclass pictures for the Narcissus is the editorial staff. Seated: J. Dobler and M. Bullock, index editors; J. Wyneken, senior editor, and S. McCarthy, underclass editor. Standing: M. Erlenbaugh sports editor; B. Pier, classroom editor; G. Daly, senior editor; R. Angle, classroom editor; S. English, activities editor; M. Cole, assistant underclass editor, and R. Thompson, activities editor.

Looking at a few of the older yearbooks are Carolyn Ebert, editor-in-chief of the Narcissus, and Frank Anderson, associate editor. New and original ideas play an important part in assembling a yearbook.

Staffs Work Hard to Meet Deadlines

After Carolyn Ebert, editor-in-chief of the Narcissus, attended Indiana University Journalism Institute to learn the process of organizing a yearbook, the staff began to develop their sections, take pictures, and write copy. Although ten months may seem sufficient to finish a yearbook, staff members found the time was scarcely enough.

During the first semester, Tanee Mullett was Peruvian editor; Kent Dove, former managing editor, became head boss second semester. The rest of the staff continued writing stories, typing, proofreading, making up and selling ads, and collecting money.

"How does this sound?" asks Tanee Mullett, Peruvian editor-in-chief as she composes an editorial. Kent Dove, her co-editor, and Margaret Duncan, editorial assistant, check previous issues of the paper.

The editorial staff checks copy for the paper. Seated: S. Crowden, editorial assistant, and K. Bird, sports editor. Standing: J. Langdon, news editor; L. Hagen, copy editor; J. Wallace, feature editor, and B. Potter, editorial assistant.

Duly signed out, Peruvian staff members head for town. Top to bottom: J. Sonafrank, ad manager; D. Smith, business manager; L. Fishback, circulation manager; J. O'Connell, Peru Daily Tribune correspondent; M. Scott, ad manager, and M. Montgomery, Tribune correspondent.

Keeping track of Narcissus collections was the task of these seniors in Mr. Fox's home room. Row 1: S. Malott, S. Hays, J. O'Connell, D. Smith, P. Karba, E. Draving, P. Crist, L. Skinner. Row 2: G. Fitzgerald, T. Mullett, M. Montgomery, M. Garber, R. Schubert, S. Bowman, S. Spandau, J. Struble, H. Bell, K. Wacknitz. Row 3: M. King, D. Reed, S. Mofford, E. Carpenter, R. See, J. Stitt, K. Bird, M. McLaughlin, K. Dove.

Various Clubs Color World at PHS

To become acquainted with the teaching profession is the purpose of the Future Teachers of America club. The members are: Row 1: J. Evans, D. Randolph, J. Hopper, S. Hays, T. Bender, J. O'Connell, M. Bullock, B. Wernz, R. Baber. Row 2: C. Soames, J. Wyneken, R. Angle, N. Pearcy, L. Smith, C. Nash, S. Reed, D. Smith, D. Mitchell. Row 3: B. Mowbray, G. Borden, T. Noble, P. Arrick, D. Ramsey, K. Dove, J. Allbritten, A. Kunkle, J. Wallace, Miss Elizabeth Ridenour, adviser.

Setting up type and running off the Peruvian is the job of the print shop staff: M. Yater, B. Bishop, R. Burns, M. LeDoux, T. Holland, and A. Binkerd. Mr. Franklin Minion is the print shop adviser.

The patrol boys and the print shop boys were two of the many service groups which aided PHS. The patrol boys kept the student body safe; the print shop boys kept everyone informed on school activities. Learning management was the goal of the Future Homemakers of America and Homeroom 216; the first group learned how to care for the home, and the latter learned how to manage money in making Narcissus collections. The Library Club and Future Teachers of America, in their respective clubs, were able to learn about the library and teaching professions.

Learning to put to use the domestic arts are members of the Future Homemakers of America. Row 1: B. Huggins, C. Sherman, B. Hastings, S. Shoemaker. Row 2: E. Draving, D. Sopher, B. Miller, A. Faulkner. Row 3: C. Brown, R. Johnson, S. Grzebski, D. Trueblood, B. Place.

Emphasizing safety is the main objective of these Patrol Club members. Row 1: C. Marks, T. Lee, K. Gipson, J. Higdon. Row 2: Mr. Noel Davis, adviser, R. Garver, B. Davidson. Row 3: J. Marcette, R. Moffatt, S. Kile.

NFL members who traveled to various schools in the state to participate in speech meets are: Row 1: M. Scott, D. Randolph, J. Evans, J. Hopper, E. Crume. Row 2: E. Rommelfanger, D. Henderson, K. Hahn, C. Soames, L. Hagen, G. Daly. Row 3: S. Crowden, S. Craig, M. Garber, B. Potter, M. Montgomery, S. Eder, T. Marks, R. McLaughlin. Row 4: P. Duncan, D. Hostetler, T. Noble, G. Washington, K. Bird, K. Dove, D. Landis, T. Ward, F. Gilbert, Mr. Thomas Feit, adviser.

Other members of the speech club are: Row 1: C. King, D. Winn, V. Crowden, C. Kelly, L. Jackson, J. Craft, N. Smith, G. Bryant. Row 2: K. Kunkle, L. Schini, J. Glassburn, N. Dossey, C. Stilwell, K. Jackson, C. Cole, M. Wheeler, S. Payne, M. Murphy. Row 3: D. Jordan, J. Vettel, D. Jones, B. Scott, B. Pier, B. Johnson, L. Johnston, R. Williams, D. Clark.

To be accepted into Quill and Scroll, one must either have written 200 column-inches or have done other outstanding work on the Narcissus or Peruvian staff. One must be in the upper third of his class and must be approved by the advisers, Mrs. Mary Keith and Mr. Philip Fox. Art Club members provided decorations for the Thanksgiving and Christmas Dance as well as for the Rodeo and Junior and Senior Plays. Traveling to Purdue University to the Congress-Extemporaneous Clinic were several NFL members who discussed trade policies. President of the club is Dale Landis. Other officers include Guy Washington, vice-president; Martha Scott, secretary; Dorothy Randolph, treasurer, and Lindsay Hagen, historian. Entertaining persons at the county farm, Jr. Red Cross members sang carols and made gift cards for Christmas and during the Valentine Holiday, they served refreshments to those present.

In charge of the Publications banquet were these members of Quill and Scroll, an international honorary for journalists. Seated: S. Crowden, J. O'Connell, J. Wyneken, M. Scott, C. Ebert, S. McCarthy. Standing: G. Daly, D. Landis, treasurer; F. Anderson, president; K. Bird, K. Dove, T. Mullett, secretary.

Stimulated by an interest in art, the members of the Art Club work to complete an art project for the school year. The members are: Row 1: C. Ebert, A. Taylor, J. Evans, J. Craft, G. Geberin, S. Richter. Row 2: J. Zerbe, L. Kramer, R. Thompson, C. Nash, T. Hand, D. Mitchell. Row 3: S. English, K. Fouts, J. Cover, D. Snyder, J. Beauchamp, B. Walker, Mr. Wayne Taylor, sponsor; J. Burger.

Students Enjoy Displaying Talents

Boys Pursue

Junior and senior boys strive for self-improvement and other goals in Senior Hi-Y. Row 1: K. Maxwell, T. Geberin, J. Personett, R. Stitt, J. Stout, K. Allen, A. Denny. Row 2: D. Means, A. Kunkle, M. Hayes, M. Plotner, K. Oyler, K. Comer, R. McKinley, B. Miller, D. Rassner. Row 3: R. Williams, D. Donaldson, D. Landis, J. Rook, J. Allbritten, J. Langdon, K. Dawalt, D. Eckerley. Row 4: Mr. Noel Davis, sponsor, J. Hall, M. McLaughlin, T. Bender, D. Denny, J. Burkhart, M. Erlenbaugh, M. Rody, J. Rhodes, G. Borden.

This year the Industrial Club again constructed a winning float for the Homecoming game. Members are: Row 1: D. Eytcheson, D. Hostetler, M. Yater, W. Avery, J. Hoeppner, M. Chittum, R. Mowery, W. Guillaume, S. Phillipy. Row 2: G. Fitzgerald, G. Beresh, T. Duncan, R. Hendricks, L. Graf, J. Barnhart, J. Biggs, B. Lennon, J. Pattison, G. Durkes. Row 3: J. Morris, D. Cypherd, T. Brechbiel, C. Whybrew, A. Binkerd, R. Bishop, T. Ward, P. Angle, C. Phillips, H. Gann. Row 4: R. Mooney, R. Burns, M. LeDoux, G. White, G. Siders, D. Rockenbaugh, J. Ratliff, J. Hall, T. Banks, R. See, G. Hawley, R. Sutton.

Honors in P-Club, Industrial Club, Hi-Y

Hi-Y members strive to better themselves, their school, and their community by working toward clean morals, clean speech, and high scholarship, spiritual, and mental development. Only upperclassmen may belong to Senior Hi-Y. P-Club members promote sports throughout the school while C-21 members sell refreshments at the games. The Industrial Club organizes an annual educational trip. Again this year the group constructed the prize-winning float for the Homecoming game.

Members of the Sophomore Hi-Y include: Row 1: Mr. Brentis Berkshire, adviser, D. Sanders, T. Hayes, J. Gilkey, J. Milroy, C. Marks. Row 2: R. Davidson, T. Schram, M. Eikenberry, F. Sipe, D. Hartleroad, D. Cooley.

The Senior Y-Teens provide the program for the formal induction of the Sophomore Y-Teens. Row 1: S. Salmons, M. Horr, S. English C. Black, C. Ebert, G. Geberin, M. Morefield, M. Our World at PHS in Sports

Up and over goes Senior Halfback Sam Phillipy as he lunges for that extra yard against ever-powerful Huntington. The Tigers rolled over the defending champions by a 26-7 count.

Football Bengals Earn 8-1-1 Record

For the third straight year the football Tigers, under Coach Robert Larson, romped through a successful season. The Bengals won eight out of ten, with one loss and one tie, marking the first time in 25 years that a Tiger team lost fewer than two games.

Statistics tell the story, since the Tigers scored an average of 31.8 points to their opponents' 4-6. An innovation this year was the two-platoon system, with the defensive team known as the "Headhunters," and the offensive unit, the "Go Team." The Bengals ended the season in a four-way tie for the CIC championship, along with Huntington, Tipton, and Alexandria.

Closing in on Senior Mike Henry, two Huntington Vikings try to stop him from getting a first down. The combination of Mike and Brother Jeff, transfers from Marion, was a winning one for Peru.

With Larson at Helm

The 1962 Tigers were led by their hard-running senior fullback, Bob Mangene. Bob ground out over 1300 yards on his way to scoring 80 points for the Tiger cause. Bob was selected for both the All-Conference and All-State teams. Senior Bill Abbey, Tiger stalwart who played at end, was also selected for All-State and All-Conference honors. Rick Mooney, a junior tackle, was also selected for the All-Conference first team.

Other players earning All-Conference honors were Herman Butzin, a senior guard who made the third team; Jerry Bradley, a senior quarterback; Frank Anderson, senior tackle, and Jim Baber, junior guard. The last three won honorable mention.

Concentration is reflected in the face of defensive standout Bob Smalley as he watches his offensive counterparts in action. Bob was voted the Best Defensive Player because of his efforts with the "Headhunters."

The 1962 Football Tigers are: Row 1: B. Abbey, J. Bradley, M. Henry, S. Phillipy, M. King, H. Butzin, J. Colelli, J. Fry D. Landis, F. Anderson, B. Smalley. Row 2: P. Arrick, K. Bird, D. Wyneken, J. Baber, R. Mooney, J. Henry. Row 4: J. Hentgen, R. Conklin, D. Buzbee, D. Scott, D. Hartleroad, B. Thurston, T. Rockwell, B. Buffington, J. Mullett, L. Minns, M. Eikenberry, M. Hoover, B. Rockenbaugh.

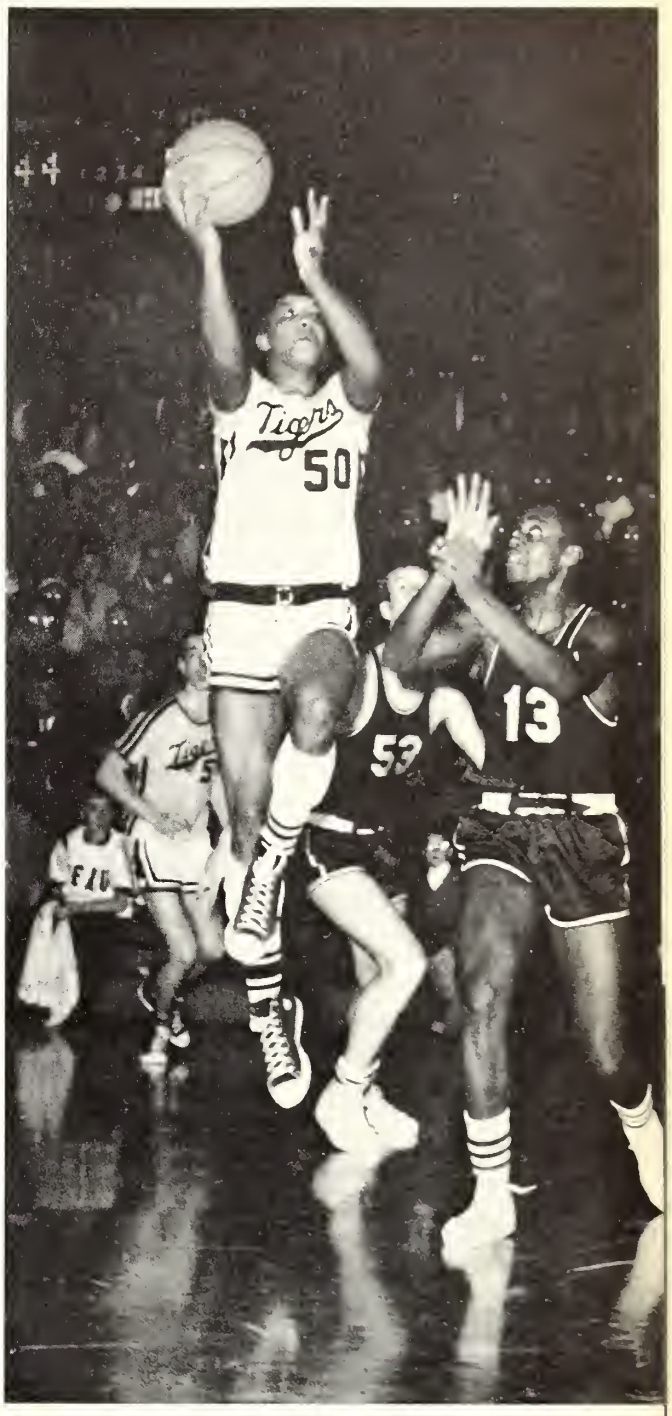
Coach Larson gives a few pointers to the team between halves as Dave Denny, background, listens attentively. The Tigers ended their year with an 8-1-1 record.

Football Team Finishes Season;

"Come on you guys," yells Rick Mooney from the sidelines to his teammates as he takes a well deserved rest.

"Just one more game to go," says senior tackle Frank Anderson after the Bunker Hill game.

"Give me that thing," says Jeff Henry to his Fort Wayne Central opponent as he pursues the ball. Jeff was the only underclassman to play on the first five this year and was the team's second leading scorer.



Bill Abbey drives in for one of his feared layins against Indianapolis Tech. Bill was the team's leading rebounder all season as well as the contributor of many valuable points to the Tiger cause.

Winning Season,

Big Dave Denny, stalwart Tiger center maneuvers around his Indianapolis Tech guard for another of his deadly hook shots. A senior, Dave was the team's leading scorer this season.

The 1962-63 Basketball Tigers completed a successful season, winning 15 and losing 9. This was accomplished in spite of their facing top-notch competition. The Tigers played several teams of state-wide ranking and more than held their own against them. The highlight of the season was the Bengals' upset of mighty Indianapolis Tech, the largest school in the state, ranked ninth at the time. The Tigers put a successful end to the season by winning the Sectional with comparative ease. In the first game the Tigers rolled over highly-regarded North Caston and then soundly beat neighboring North Miami. In the championship game the Bengals faced Clay, the team that had beaten them in the final Sectional game in 1962. This time things were different, however, as the Tigers beat the Indians, 73-53.

Sectional Crown Earned by Bengals

Rick Mooney performs an exercise on the slanted bar as Keith Bird, Jim Baber, Sam Phillipy, Dennis Snyder, and Ron Conklin go through other conditioning exercises.

"Heave-ho," says Sophomore Victor Geberin as he prepares to lift the bar bells during a weight-lifting session.

Because of the distance and expense involved in traveling to meets, wrestling, which has always been a winter sport at PHS, was dropped this year. Instead, a weight-lifting program was instituted so that more boys would have the opportunity to keep in shape all year long. Held three days a week throughout the winter at the Junior High School, the program involved chiefly underclassmen who wanted to keep in shape for football. Mr. Robert Larson, who directed the program, supervised the boys in various beneficial exercises. He was assisted by three seniors, Sam Phillipy, Keith Bird and Frank Anderson.

Linksmen Win CIC, Place In State

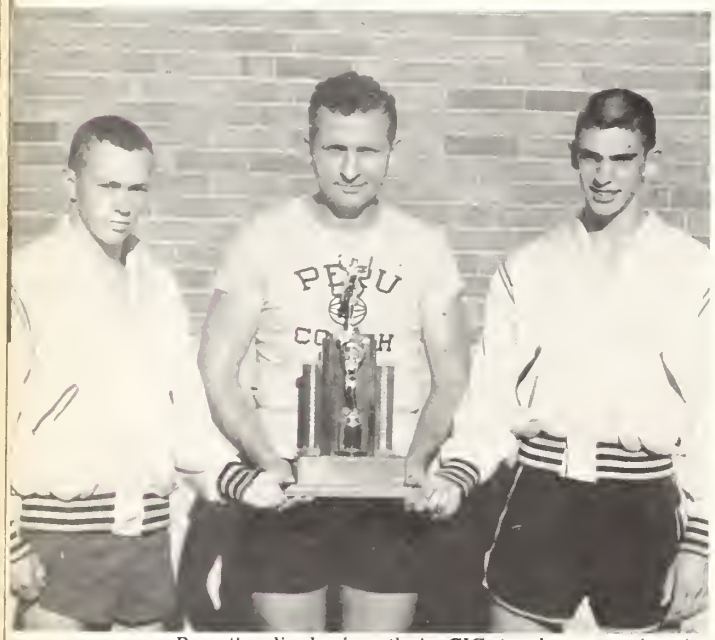
Golfers for PHS in 1962 are: Kneeling: C. Bunnell, P. Cutler, J. Greenfield, E. Cowan, Coach Charles Craycraft. Standing: M. Tschiniak, H. Spranger, E. King, M. Daly, G. Spranger, J. Gilgrist.

Although the golf team comprised several newcomers, the boys turned in a record of eight wins and three losses. They won the CIC, placed third in the Sectional and seventh in the State Finals. With several returning lettermen, Coach Charles Craycraft expected less trouble re-building for 1963.

"Drop," says Harold Spranger as he watches his ball roll toward the first hole at Municipal Course. Harold and his twin brother Gerald provided an effective one-two punch against opponents of the Tiger linksmen.

PHS Cindermen Turn In Good Year

Trackmen of 1962 are: Row 1: N. Bulaski, D. Cudaback, R. Sparks, B. Keith, A. Denny, M. Yater, S. Beverly, G. Stewart, T. Hayes, B. Thurston, G. Correll, J. Winters, J. Pattison, J. Sherrick, V. Geberin. Row 2: S. Phillipy, R. Garber, L. Minns, R. See, J. Yentes, R. Danielsen, D. Landis, G. White, G. Shoemaker, B. Zimmerman, H. Sonafrank, D. Winters, M. Bullock. Row 3: Coaches Brentis Berkshire and Clifford Snyder, M. Hayes, P. Walker, K. Dove, K. Eberle, B. Abbey, B. Mangene, K. Bird, F. Anderson, B. Musgrave, K. Dawalt, J. Ratliff, R. Siders, G. Hammond, R. Yard, J. Fry.

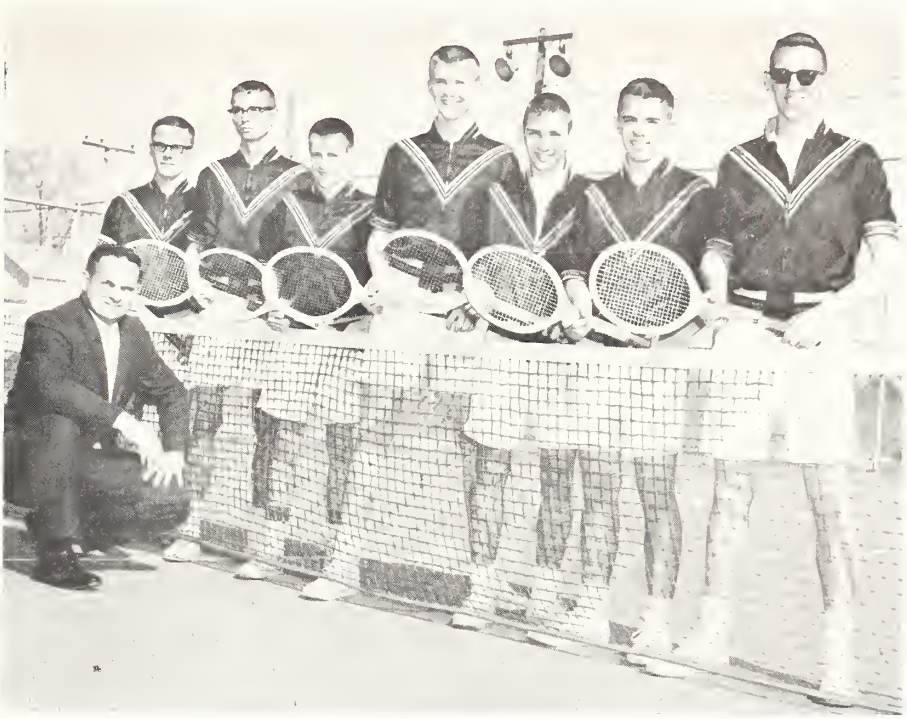


Proudly displaying their CIC trophy, won for the first time in PHS history, are Mike Yater, Coach Robert Biddle, and Glenn Borden. Yater and Borden were co-captains of the cross country team.

Despite the loss of their top man, Gerald Sherrick, Peru's track team finished the season with a 3-1 record, first place in the New Haven, Huntington, Peru meet, and a second in the three-way meet among Plymouth, Wabash, and Peru. The season's all-around track man was Hal Sonafrank, who broke many of his own records and several Central Indiana Conference marks. The year marked Head Coach Brentis Berkshire's third successful year at the helm.

A perfect pass of the baton is made from Kraig Dawalt to Hal Sonafrank. Onlookers at this practice run are Ron Yard and Mike Bullock.

Tennis Tigers Remain Unconquered



Peru's 1962 racquetmen, lined up at netside, are: Standing: R. Doucette, R. Dobler, L. Holmes, M. Eikenberry, K. Oyler, D. Rassner, J. Bradley. Kneeling: Coach Joseph Saine.

Kenny Oyler stretches high to return a serve. This was Kenny's second year on the varsity, where he played Number Three singles.

The Tiger tennis team, under Coach Joe Saine, completed its third straight undefeated season. Because of a new point system adopted by the conference, however, the Tigers were forced to accept a tie with Huntington for the CIC title. The racquetmen played several out-of-state teams in their quest for competition, and beat them all handily. Number One singles man was Jerry Bradley.

Warming up for a conference match Danny Rassner and Jerry Bradley show the form which made them the Number One doubles team. Jerry and Danny were unbeaten during the season.

Mike Yater, in a re-play of a familiar scene, comes in first at the finish line, with a few competitors barely in sight. Mike is a senior.

For the first time in the history of PHS, the Tiger cross country team brought home the CIC trophy. To win the championship, the harriers fought off good competition. The record stands at six wins and one loss, the latter being to Elwood by one point. The six wins were over Plymouth, Rochester, Oak Hill, Monticello, Warsaw, and Wabash. Since most of the boys will be coming back next year, Coach Robert Biddle will have a good nucleus to build on.

Managers, Others Work Behind Scene

Boys responsible for taking care of the mountains of equipment for football and track are: Row 1: G. Joseph, M. Hayes, R. Schubert. Row 2: G. Fitzgerald, K. Dove, M. Rody, Row 3: K. Grether, P. Walker.

Mr. Albert Spandau, PHS Athletic Director, dictates a letter to Barbara Potter. Barb serves as secretary to Mr. Spandau during her free periods, helping with the paper work involved in this job.

Keeping the basketball teams in tip-top shape is the job which falls on the shoulders of these four boys: Mike Joseph, Mickey Plotner, Carl Marks, and Lee Holmes. Lee and Mickey, seniors, have completed four years on the job.

Peru high school head coaches for 1963 are: Front: Mr. Jack Craycraft, golf; Mr. Brentis Berkshire, track, assistant basketball; Mr. Joe Saine, tennis. Back: Mr. Bob Larson, varsity football; Mr. Robert Biddle, varsity basketball, cross country.

Coaches, Yell Leaders Add Skill, Spirit

Three men whom the head coaches could not get along without are the assistant coaches. They are: Mr. William Siderewicz, football; Mr. Clifford Snyder, track, and Mr. James Zielinski, football.

Pointing the way to a victory are the B-Team cheerleaders: Cindy King, Susie Hilgeman, and Nancy Smith.

The "Varsity Five" smilingly exhibit their skills in rousing school spirit. Gerrie-Anne Daly and Beverly Black stand atop Sam Phillipy and Joe Beauchamp as Dianne Halley demonstrates the Chinese splits.

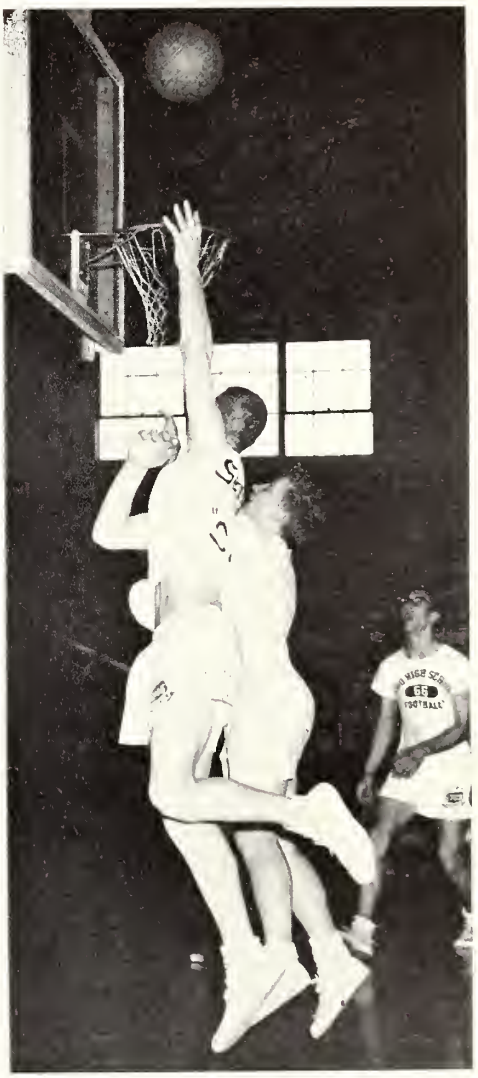
Caught in a rare quiet moment, senior members of Pepettes and cheerleaders await the resumption of hostilities in the season's final basketball game.

Athletic Program

A foursome of honored basketball players line up for the camera. Winners and their awards are Jeff Henry, honorary captain; Dave Denny, free-throw championship and Hopper award for scholarship, athletic ability, and attitude; Bill Abbey Kiwanis trophy for most-improved player, and Jerry Bradley, Durkes-Nelp award for best defensive player.

Involves Many

GAA officers Gerrie-Anne Daly, Janet Gustafson, Karen Johnson, and Janice English proudly show off their new sweatshirts to the GAA sponsor, Mrs. Betty Doud. The girls sold the black and gold sweatshirts to raise money for their club.



Herman Butzin tries unsuccessfully to block Tom Wyneken's shot during a close noon-league game. The team captained by Mickey Plotner earned its way to the championship by suffering only three defeats.

Putting the latest yearbook atop a stack of previous ones is Carolyn Ebert, editor-in-chief. Looking on are Frank Anderson, associate editor; Mrs. Keith, adviser, and Dale Landis, business-advertising manager.

Here is the story of our world—PHS. Memories of many personalities have been recorded on these pages, describing the "best years." The staff breathed a sigh of relief as they met the last deadline with their final copy.

This book could not have been a reality had not several people devoted generous time and effort.

Our thanks go to Mr. Charles Mueller of Ropkey Engraving Company, Inc., who helped us plan the layout and who supervised the engraving of our pictures. We thank Mr. John Waltz for his endless patience as our yearbook photographer. Very special thanks to Mr. Bill Manmiller and Mr. Jesse C. Perry at Peru Sentinel Printing Company, Inc., for setting up copy and making corrections. We could not have managed without the help of Mr. Philip Fox and Homeroom 216, who handled circulation matters, and Mrs. Alice Moon's typing classes, who typed circulation lists.

We obtained co-operation from many persons while editing this book. Appreciation goes to Mr. Delph and the faculty for excusing students from classes during "picture days"—to Peru merchants who financed our book—to Mr. Jack Bundy, of S. K. Smith Company for designing the cover of our book.

And very deep, sincere, and heartfelt gratitude goes to Mrs. Mary Keith, our capable adviser, who guided us all year as we tried to make this year's book the best ever.

Few people realize the hard and detailed work or enjoyment involved in creating a yearbook. Now, finally, we can proudly present to you Our World —and yours—PHS.

Carolyn Lorraine Ebert,
Editor-in-Chief.

Frank Anderson,
Associate Editor.
